We Started with the Question ... What's Our Why?

We are often asked: Why do we choose to support the hemophilia community?

So, when thinking about this year's NHF Bleeding Disorders Conference, we set out to answer just that...

You are our reason why. For us, it's personal. Working with the hemophilia community gives us meaning and purpose. It reminds us what true strength and resilience looks like. It's our reason why we do what we do.

We Want to Know... What's Your Why?

Why is the hemophilia community important to you? Why do you feel connected to this community? What is your reason why?

Here's how:
