

Educational Support Tools

At Accredo, your specialty pharmacy, we're dedicated to helping people with bleeding disorders and the loved ones who care for them. Our unique programs and resources are specifically designed to provide essential, age-appropriate and ongoing support for patients, families, schools, emergency departments and managed care organizations. Whether you're looking for emergency preparedness information, nutrition and exercise tips or continuing education programs, Accredo is your go-to source for bleeding disorder care.

Living with Hemophilia ↓

For patients and caregivers, this guide covers all aspects of the condition, including treatments, lifestyle adjustments and much more through the stages of cognitive and physical development from infancy to adulthood.

Living with Hemophilia (Spanish) ↓

Spanish version of the guide for patients and caregivers that covers all aspects of hemophilia, including treatments, lifestyle adjustments and much more through the stages of cognitive and physical development from infancy to adulthood.

Managing Your Bleeding Disorder ↓

This guide helps patients and caregivers monitor important details, such as Accredo pharmacy contact information, factor storage guidelines, treatment logs, as well as tips on controlling infections, home safety, travel and more.

Living with Von Willebrand Disease ↓

This general overview of VWD includes information on diagnosis, genetics, treatment options and Q&A.

Guide to Venous Access Devices ↓

Inside this piece, you'll find illustrations showing how various types of venous access devices work in the body, along with helpful information about the benefits and challenges of each.

My Amazing Blood ▶

Educational video for children to find out how to stay healthy while managing their condition, understand how their heart and blood vessels help them run, jump and play and learn about their red blood cells, white blood cells, plasma and more.

Coach and Educator Guide to Bleeding Disorders ↓

Find answers to common questions of educators, physical education teachers, coaches and scout leaders who supervise students with bleeding disorders. This guide also includes an overview of bleeding disorders, guidelines for recognizing and responding to bleeds, risk categories for various sports and activities and a form for parents or caregivers to note critical contact information in the event of a bleed.

We're here for you

- hemophilia.com
- Patients: 866.712.5200
- Physicians: 866.712.5007
- BleedingDisorders@accredo.com